MOTION PURSUANT TO BANKRUPTCY RULE 4007(c) TO FURTHER EXTEND THE DEADLINE TO OBJECT TO DEBTOR’S DISCHARGE

Creditor and Interested Party, Jossef Kahlon (“Mr. Kahlon”), by and through undersigned counsel, hereby respectfully moves this court pursuant to Rule 4007(c) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and Local Rule 9006-2 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of New York, for an order further extending by four (4) weeks the deadline by which Mr. Kahlon is required to file a complaint under Section 523(c) of Title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) to determine the dischargeability of a debt owed to Mr. Kahlon by the chapter 11 Debtor in the above-entitled action, Erica Yitzhak. (“Debtor” or “Ms. Yitzhak”). Because (i) Mr. Kahlon and the Debtor were until recently engaged in settlement discussions, and (ii) Mr. Kahlon’s counsel is making a professional transition to another law firm, Mr. Kahlon submits that this deadline should be further extended to March 3, 2025. In support of his Motion, Mr. Kahlon respectfully states as follows:

1. Ms. Yitzhak filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code on or about April 19, 2024. Pursuant to a motion filed by Ms. Yitzhak (ECF No. 16), by a Court order dated June 28, 2024 (ECF No. 30), her case was converted to a case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. No committee has been appointed in this case and Ms. Yitzhak continues to operate as a debtor in possession pursuant to Section 1107 of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. On July 18, 2024, Ms. Yitzhak filed a plan of reorganization (the “Proposed Plan”). See ECF No. 51.

3. The required Section 341 meeting of creditors was held on July 29, 2024.

4. Pursuant to Rule 4007(c) and as set forth in the Notice of the Section 341(a) meeting (see ECF No. 39), the deadline for a creditor to object to discharge of Ms. Yitzhak’s liability pursuant to sections 523(a)(2), (4), or (6) of the Bankruptcy Code was September 27, 2024.

5. As the Court is aware, Mr. Kahlon is the largest creditor in this chapter 11 case. Mr. Kahlon has filed a proof of claim in the amount of at least $1,853,773.23. See Claim No. 17.

6. Mr. Kahlon’s claim is based on a New York state court legal malpractice judgment (the “Judgment”) that he obtained against Ms. Yitzhak, a member of the State Bar of New York, in connection with her highly deficient representation of Mr. Kahlon.

7. Specifically, Ms. Yitzhak commenced in October 2012 an action on behalf of Mr. Kahlon and Atlas Solar Holdings, LLC (“Atlas”) in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of New York, under Index Number 157465/2012 (the “Initial State Action”) against Troy Lambe (“Mr. Lambe”) and SunRay Solar Inc. (“SunRay”).

8. Ms. Yitzhak’s representation of her clients—Mr. Kahlon and Atlas—in the Initial State Action was woefully deficient. Her egregious acts of commission and omission as a lawyer in the Initial State Action were severely prejudicial to the interests of Mr. Kahlon and Atlas. On or about July 13, 2013, Justice Peter Sherwood dismissed the complaint that was prepared and filed by Ms. Yitzhak in the Initial State Action, without leave to amend.

9. Shortly thereafter, Mr. Lambe and SunRay, as plaintiffs, filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York against Mr. Kahlon, Atlas, Ms. Yitzhak and Ms. Yitzhak's law firms (Case No. 13-Cv-03126) (the "Initial Federal Action").

10. Plaintiffs in the Initial Federal Action asserted tort and contract-based claims in connection with the conduct of Mr. Kahlon, Atlas and Ms. Yitzhak in the Initial State Action. A jury trial was held in January 2016 in the Initial Federal Action. During the trial, Mr. Lambe and SunRay reached a settlement agreement to resolve all their claims against Ms. Yitzhak that arose from her conduct in the Initial State Action. However, plaintiffs did not settle their claims with Mr. Kahlon and Atlas in the Initial Federal Action. Thereafter, the jury deliberated and returned a verdict in favor of Mr. Lambe and Sunray and against Mr. Kahlon and Atlas in the amount of one million dollars ($1,000,000).

11. Notably, before concluding the trial in the Initial Federal Action, Judge Leonard Wexler of the Eastern District of New York issued an exceptionally harsh on-the-record rebuke against Ms. Yitzhak's professional misconduct in the Initial State Action. Judge Wexler opined that Ms. Yitzhak's legal work in the Initial State Action grossly deviated from the normal standards of competency and professionalism to such an extent that he seriously considered reporting Ms. Yitzhak to the New York State bar disciplinary authorities.

12. Judge Wexler specifically said on the record that Ms. Yitzhak's conduct as a lawyer in the Initial State Action "violated everything that a lawyer should have done in a case." Ms. Yitzhak "violated all the ethics as a lawyer." According to Judge Wexler, Ms. Yitzhak's actions were "disgusting" and "horrible."

13. After the conclusion of the Initial Federal Action, Mr. Kahlon filed a malpractice case against Ms. Yitzhak in state court in Nassau County (the “State Malpractice Action”). The state court in the State Malpractice Action granted summary judgment in favor of Mr. Kahlon and entered the Judgment in the amount of $1,503,013.70 against Ms. Yitzhak.

14. The Judgment is now final and not subject to appeal under New York state law. Ms. Yitzhak has filed a Motion to Vacate the Judgment in state court. Mr. Kahlon has removed that motion to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York, as a matter arising in and/or related to Ms. Yitzhak’s bankruptcy case in this Court. See 28 U.S.C. §§ 1452 and 1334.

15. Mr. Kahlon contends that the Motion to Vacate, based on an entirely unsupportable interpretation of Rule 13 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, is devoid of merit, frivolous and sanctionable.<sup>1</sup> Mr. Kahlon anticipates moving to transfer that motion to this Court. At a pre-motion status conference held in October 2024, Judge Pamela Chen of the Eastern District repeatedly stated her view, which aligns with Mr. Kahlon’s position, that Ms. Yitzhak’s Motion to Vacate does not have any support in law. Judge Chen repeatedly pressed Ms. Yitzhak’s counsel for authorities, for any authorities, that would remotely support his frivolous reading of Rule 13. Ms. Yitzhak’s counsel<sup>2</sup> was not able to proffer such support, either during the status conference or in any subsequent written submissions to Judge Chen, for the simple reason that no such authorities exists.

16. Judge Chen also stated during the conference that subject to clarification that the removal under the federal Bankruptcy Code was procedurally proper, she is highly inclined to deny Ms. Yitzhak's motion to remand and asked Ms. Yitzhak's counsel to think long and hard about whether he could prosecute a motion to remand.

17. Ignoring Judge Chen's admonishments, however, Ms. Yitzhak has moved to remand the motion to state court. With respect to that remand motion, Mr. Kahlon's surreply is due on February 7, 2025 and the briefing on the motion to remand will be complete at the time.

18. Ms. Yitzhak has filed a malpractice action of her own against Paul Verner, her prior counsel in the State Malpractice Action. That action is pending.

19. Ms. Yitzhak filed her petition for bankruptcy relief to forestall Mr. Kahlon's efforts to collect her assets to satisfy the Judgment.

20. Section 523(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code prohibits an individual debtor from obtaining a discharge for debt incurred as a result of "willful and malicious injury by the debtor to another entity or to the property of another entity." 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(6).

21. Courts have interpreted § 523(a)(6) to mean that a debt is not dischargeable if a debtor's misconduct was substantially certain to result in the injury at issue to a creditor. Hough v. USAA Cas. Ins. Co. (In re Margulies), 721 F. App'x 98, 101 (2d Cir. 2018). As the Second Circuit has illustrated, a person's failure to apply the car brakes before striking another person satisfied this test because the injuries were "substantially certain to flow" from that failure. Id.

22. Similarly, in the context of a debt resulting from medical malpractice, a patient-creditor's complaint to deny a discharge for a medical doctor under § 523(a)(6) survived a motion to dismiss because it plausibly alleged that the doctor's "affirmative treatment and lack of subsequent corrective action was substantially certain to result in Plaintiff's injury." Schoeb v.

Sorelle (In re Jonathan R. Sorelle, M.D., PLLC), 2020 Bankr. LEXIS 2009, at *6 (Bankr. Nev. June 30, 2020). The court held that it was not necessary to establish a specific intent to harm the patient by the doctor. Id.

23. Like the creditor in Schoeb, Mr. Kahlon submits that he can demonstrate that Ms. Yitzhak’s “conscious disregard” of his rights in the Initial State Court Action and Ms. Yitzhak’s failure to correct her mistakes during her the course of representation was sufficient to satisfy the test under § 523(a)(6) to deny Ms. Yitzhak a discharge of the Judgment debt. This is especially so because Ms. Yitzhak’s conduct in the Initial State Court Action was so outrageous as to solicit a harsh on the record rebuke from a federal judge, as discussed supra.

24. While Rule 4007(c) sets a 60 day deadline, as measured from the date of the Section 341(a) meeting, for the filing of a complaint by a party in interest to object to a discharge based on § 523(a)(2), (4), or (6) of the Bankruptcy Court, it also gives the court the discretion to extend the deadline for cause as long as the motion for extension is filed before the expiration of the 60 day deadline. See, e.g., In re Sheppard, 532 B.R. 672 (B.A.P. 6th Cir. 2015) (extensions should be liberally granted).

25. On September 27, 2024 (see ECF No. 24), Mr. Kahlon sought an extension of the deadline to file his adversary complaint against Ms. Yitzhak on the basis of the then ongoing settlement discussions between the parties. In the motion, Mr. Kahlon requested that the deadline be extended to the date that objections to the confirmation of the Proposed Plan were due.

26. After the filing of this initial motion, Ms. Yitzhak advised through counsel that she consented to an extension to January 6, 2005. The Court thereafter entered an order extending the deadline to January 6, 2025. See ECF Nos. 65 and 66.

27. The parties were still engaged in good-faith settlement discussions as the January 6, 2025 deadline approached. For example, on January 16, 2025, Ms. Yitzhak, through counsel and pursuant to Rule 408 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, conveyed a specific written settlement offer to Mr. Kahlon. In order to give Mr. Kahlon reasonable time to evaluate her offer, Ms. Yitzhak, through counsel, stipulated to two additional extensions of the filing deadline, first to January 20, 2025 and then to February 3, 2025. See ECF No. 76 (filed on January 6, 2025) and No. 78 (filed on January 18, 2025).

28. Mr. Kahlon thereafter, during the week of January 27, 2025, determined that he was not able to accept at this time Ms. Yitzhak's settlement offer of January 16, 2025. Ms. Yitzhak thereafter indicated that absent a settlement in principle, she is not willing to stipulate to another extension of the filing deadline.

29. Because of the aforementioned settlement discussions, now suspended, Ms. Yitzhak has not moved forward with her Proposed Plan. No objection deadline has been set with respect to her Proposed Plan.

30. A further extension of the filing deadline, as set forth herein, is appropriate and warranted because the parties were until last week engaged in good-faith settlement discussions. Due to the possibility of a settlement that would moot this chapter 11 case and his forthcoming adversary complaint, Mr. Kahlon understandably instructed his counsel to refrain from expending resources to prepare the complaint. In addition, Mr. Kahlon's primary bankruptcy counsel, Mr. Wang, took off most of the week of January 27, 2025 (when it became obvious that the parties were not able to settle the case at this junction) in observance of the annual Lunar New Year holidays.

31. In addition, Mr. Kahlon's other counsel, Mr. Haft, has given notice that he is in the process of transitioning to another law firm. Mr. Kahlon is therefore entitled to a reasonable amount of time to make a counsel selection going forward for this litigation. A brief extension of pending deadlines is routine when a litigant's counsel moves to a new law firm and is warranted here for this reason alone.

32. Because Ms. has not moved forward with her Proposed Plan given the settlement discussions, this requested extension for a brief extension of time is in no way prejudicial to her.

33. Therefore, Mr. Kahlon respectfully moves the Court to extend the deadline by four weeks, to March 3, 2025.

34. Pursuant to Local Rule 9006-2, the filing of this Motion automatically tolls Mr. Kahlon's deadline to file an adversary complaint until the Court can rule on this Motion.
